6.2 Logo 101 Presentation from Sarna O'Brien, Graphic Designer for the city of Goodyear

Graphic Designer Sarna O'Brien introduced herself and touched on her background experience. She spoke about the logo being a representation of what the public should know about the organization it represents. She provided examples of popular logos that have been upgraded with time and other examples from groups within the city. O'Brien then lead discussions on what the Youth Commission's logo should look like from the Youth Commissioners viewpoints.

6.3 Discussion and Vote of Possible Youth Commission Logo Design and Creation

No action was taken, but there was discussion of shaking hands, social media, lettering with arrows, and specific key words, such as leadership or volunteerism to be incorporated into the logo. It was agreed that this would be something that takes time. The item will be brought back to the Commission at a later date.

6.4 Discussion of Upcoming Youth Commission Commerical

Youth Commission Commercial will potentially need extra days to film. Assistant to the Council Perry will send an email asking for available dates in April.

7. INFORMATION ITEMS

2017 Youth Leadership Day at the State Capitol on May 5th is a potential group activity that will be decided at a later date. The Commission also received an invitation from Avondale

Youth Council to participate in the Global Youth Service Day on April 22 from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm.

8. ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business to discuss, Chairman Heins adjourned the meeting at 6:28 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted by:

Jessica Perry, Assistant to the Council

Joshua Heinz, Chairman
