Public Art at Goodyear Civic Square (Guylene Ozlanski, Arts and Culture Administrator)
Artist to Engage Commissioners in Discussion about Expectations and Concept of Artwork

Administrator Ozlanski introduced the commissioners to Blessing Handock, the artist selected for the public art work at the Civic Square, and explained that this meeting was intended to be fluid to allow the commissioners the opportunity to share their thoughts on the art work and the City of Goodyear. Ms. Handock reviewed the site layout and that in the early stages of conceptual design it is her understanding the art work should be interactive, large scale and include the use of light. She will continue to meet with stakeholders from Goodyear throughout the concept development phase and beyond. Her ultimate goal is for the art work to be popular, she defines success by how many people interact with the work. Administrator Ozlanski reviewed the timeline for the project.
