OLD BUSINESS

None.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Goodyear Civic Square

a. Review artist qualification for public artwork at Goodyear Civic Square

The committee reviewed the council's vision for public art work at the Goodyear Civic Square. Administrator Ozlanski identified the probable location for the project and the committee was shown a digital "flyover" of the site. She discussed the purpose of the public art project including her vision, council's desires and current public art trends. Out of the 169 submission received from the call to artists Administrator Ozlanski identified 43 potential candidates. The committee reviewed each of the remaining artist's projects and resumes and scored them to create a short list to bring before the Arts and Culture Commission in July.

b. Select a short list of artists to be presented to the Arts & Culture Commission at the July 14, 2020 general meeting.

The following artist were selected to be presented to the commission: Blessing Hancock, Ken McCall, Alice Aycock, Nathan Pierce and Roger Stoller.
