2. Discuss Programs for FY2021

- a. Hot Coffee Art Lecture

Committee Member Fee provided an update and description of existing programs. Committee discussed impacts to programming due to COVID-19 and expressed a desire to continue programs in virtual formats where possible. Committee asked staff to explore the potential of hosting live streamed Hot Coffee lectures. By offering Hot Coffee lectures in a virtual format there may be the potential to reach a broader audience.

- b. Follow your Art
  - c. Vision & Sound
  - d. Gingerbread House Contest
3. Mayor Select

Administrator Ozlanski provided an update about Mayor Select and the committee was eager to continue the program. Winners of the Spring 2020 contest will be recognized at the Goodyear Arts and Culture Commission meeting on July 14, 2020.

4. Update about Goodyear 75th Anniversary Celebration

Administrator Ozlanski updated the committee on planned activities for the celebration. The committee recommends that a program be implemented to have the story of Goodyear be told from the perspective of various residents. This program will tie into the theme of Heart of Goodyear and will focus on "what" Goodyear means to those that call it home. Committee asked staff to research the potential of traveling sound booth that could capture peoples comments throughout 2021.
